"Not Merely to Survive —
But to Conquer"

OUR CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1975, the class of '79 embarked on that incredible journey known as "Falconland." How time flies! Many things have changed since our first advisor, Ms. Carmen Comer, helped us to establish a firm foundation for our two years of growth. She was a friend to everyone.

Our first year saw the election of class officers. Keith Phillips was elected president; Felicia Bennett, our outspoken vice-president; Deborah Middleton was the ever so dependable secretary; and Marshall Sawyer was elected to be our "money man."

Soon we were mighty sophomores with that reputation to "get off!" One year down and three more to go. We put our democratic vote to work by electing Steve Jumper as president; Marchita Bryant, secretary; Wanda Freeman was our vice-president; and again, Marshall Sawyer kept the bank warm.

Our second year passed and two more years faced us. We were anxious juniors thinking ahead to our senior year. We elected Robert Ford president of the junior class. Vice-president was Marshall Sawyer. Miss Jennifer Battles read the minutes of our meetings, and took them down, of course. Our treasurer this year . . . no . . . . . not Marshall Sawyer, but Harvey Heartley.

Well, here we are! Talk about ready to start off on an exciting cruise down "Falconland." The seniors are already talking about their rings and their degrees, their newwwwwww annnnnnd spaaaaaarkling Cadillac! Everything is just rush, rush, and more rush.

Robert Ford was re-elected president, and his vice-president (ours too) was Miss Theresa Whitaker. Miss Gloria Early was our secretary, and Michael A. Williams handled "the green."

In the midst of all the elections, fun, and classes, came special events. Among them were lyceum programs, assemblies, talent and fashion shows, and music recitals.

We are the future black leaders of America. Not only can we change things, but we MUST change them, for it is essential to Black Americans that we provide quality leadership as young blacks, but more importantly, as educated young people "NOT MERELY TO SURVIVE—BUT TO CONQUER!!!!!!!"

"Her Majesty: Our Royal Flower"

Her Majesty: And Her Court

"MISS ST. AUGUSTINE'S

President Robinson, faculty, students and friends:

Tonight on the 21st Coronation, I deem it an honor to stand before you as "Miss St. Augustine's College." This is an occasion of joy and of much reflection for me. First, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the student body who selected me as "Miss St. Augustine's College"—without your support and cooperation my reign would not be possible. Secondly, I would feel myself in error if I did not acknowledge the hard work and assistance given to me by the chairwomen of the Coronation Committee, Mrs. Lugenia Reddick, Miss Joan Taylor, and Dean M. C. White.

In closing, I am reminded of the advice of Polonius: "This above all to thine own self be true, and it will follow as the day, the night, that thou canst not be false to any man." Fellow Augites, as I begin my reign as the 21st "Miss St. Augustine's College," I would like to solicit your cooperation and goodwill, and promise you that I will represent our college with pride, honesty, and dignity.

"Miss St. Augustine's College" Speaks Out!!!

Sandra Pope is a person who likes to meet people and this was the main factor in her decision to run for Miss St. Aug. "I like meeting people and I enjoy being with people. But I would find myself in error if I did not mention my insatiable urge to travel. That too, played a part in my decision."

With the duty of Miss St. Aug. being very hectic, Sandra seems to handle the responsibility well, serving as a host for the school and its functions.

Every college campus has its problems, but Miss St. Aug. says lack of communication and registration are the main problems occurring at St. Aug. today. "St. Aug. can be considered as a progressive institution. However, it would be great if there were more open communication between the students and the administrators. It is my opinion that most of the conflicts that occur between the student body and the administrators are due to a lack of communication. Secondly, I would like to see a new method or system of registration. A method that is less monotonous and takes less time.

There are several problems facing blacks in America today. In North Carolina, black students are faced with passing the competency test given to them in their junior and senior years. Sandra finds it extremely hard to take a stand on competency tests without weighing both sides. "It is necessary for high school graduates to know the essentials in order to live and survive in our society." However, competency testing should be on the level and unbiased. When you present a test as such, everyone should have been exposed to matters of questions on the test. For instance, how could you ask a poor black child to balance a checkbook when some of them had never seen one before, or, if it is not taught in the classroom. The question remains, is it taught? If so, then, my next question would be, why is there a higher percentage of black students than whites failing the competency tests?"

Sandra advises her fellow classmates as well as underclassmen to take their studies seriously. "Because what you may do in school may reflect how well you will do in your chosen career."

Upon graduation from St. Aug. she plans to attend grad. school. "I would like to get my masters perhaps in Industrial Psychology, or Health Administration." One day I would like to have a PH.D behind my name.

Best of luck to Miss St. Aug. and all of her future endeavors. It would be nice to address her as Dr. Pope in the future.

SPEAKS OUT!!!”

“Miss St. Augustine’s College,” Sandra Pope, took the time to pose for our photographer on a beautiful, sunny afternoon.

Top Right: “Miss St. Aug.” poses in front of a Mercedes-Benz—as elegant a car as she is a young lady.

Above Right: As she drives away (possibly to stardom) Sandra’s expression seems to suggest a conquering mood—a victory. And why not—she did win our votes and our hearts as our new queen.

Miss Sandra Y. Pope, a native of Beaufort, S. C., was crowned the 21st "Miss St. Augustine's College," on Friday, Oct. 27, 1978, in the Emery Fine Arts Center. The queen's court dressed according to Sandra's theme, "Her Majesty—Our Royal Flower."

Karen T. Heard, "Miss St. Augustine's College" for 1977-78, made her last entrance as queen.

The big moment came with the procession of Sandra and her attendants. She walked slowly, but gracefully toward her throne, bowed to the audience, and stepped onto the queen's platform.

Who will believe my verse in time to come
 If it were filled with your most high deserts?

At the inception of Delta Sigma Theta in 1913 at Howard University, the founders envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service. These youthful students demonstrated a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence, and cultural enrichment, de-emphasizing the social side of sorority life. Their ideas of scholarship and service have withstood the test of time, and today Delta Sigma Theta is a public service organization, dedicated to a program of sharing membership skills and organizational services in the public interest.

In 1930, Delta Sigma Theta was incorporated. The record of incorporation is filed in the Congressional Library in Washington, D.C. Today, there are over 95,000 members and more than 600 chapters across the nation, and in the Republics of Haiti and Liberia, as well as in the Virgin Islands.

A Girl Grows Up

Running brooks and bubbling springs
 Singing birds and happy things
 A loving child, a warm embrace
 A laughing child, a happy face

Paupers that grew to be kings
 Wonder things that are happening
 All described in this pleasant world
 That is seen through the eyes of a little girl

The little girl becomes a lady
 Life is not so sweet and shady
 Tears and heartaches takes the place
 Of a loving child and a happy face

Pretty flowers and happy pride
 For she is going to be a bride
 Love's so tender warm and true
 Replaces days of gloomy blue

But time goes by and she grows older
 The sunny skies will soon grow colder
 Shaky nerves and restless fears
 Get worse with ever coming years

Death in all its magnified
 Ends this plain but touching story
 With running brooks and bubbling springs
 Singing Angels and happy things.

Three Falcons wait to play ball. Cheerleaders built a pyramid. Cooper says, "I've got the ball!" A determined Falconette secures the ball. Shaw U's no. 33 and St. Aug's no. 20 are both reachin for the sky! Center: Shaw's no. 22 rushes in to block a pass?

LOOSE!!!!!!!

Rivals fight for a rebound. At Right, a Shaw Bear tries to score. Coach Heartley whispers strategy to players.

Everyone bopped to the beat of the cheers as the cheerleaders yelled and yelled! Not only did spectators have fun, but also over boy's and girl's teams. The Falcons and Bears are all arms and eyes as the ball almost magically twists above their heads. Falconette no. 22 goes up against a rival for a jump ball. I wonder who got the tip-off?

The 1979 graduating class of Saint Augustine's College lovingly dedicates the '79 Falcon to Mrs. Mabel Wright as an expression of our gratitude and respect for her years of service, her concern for us, and her commitment to our Alma Mater.

R.O.T.C. BALL QUEEN AND COURT

It was as though it was only yesterday when we all entered this institution. We all were young, energetic, ambitious and most of all eager to begin college life. With all this, we still lacked the knowledge and experience that was of vital importance in dealing with the various problems that we would encounter. We became involved with our academic lives and our social lives in hopes of becoming well-rounded individuals. Now the time has come for us to depart and for us to go our separate ways.

Farewell classmates and the St. Augustine's Family.

Sincerely,
Robert Jerome Ford
President of the 1979
Graduating Class

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Oh, boy! It's really happened. I'm graduating, leaving Falconland. I have some fond memories of the old Aug. I remember the time Gould Hall caught fire. Terror was streaking across the faces of all the young ladies. Everyone else did the normal thing by escaping by fire escape, but I was so frightened that I ran through the flames, or what little was left of them.

I had lots of exciting times, including the homecomings, when singers and groups like the Bar-Kays, Blue Magic, Michael Henderson, Mass Production, the Jimmy Castor Bunch, the Commodores, and Mother's Finest made appearances at the Aug. and the Civic Center.

Royalty! I remember a cavalcade of queens. Some of the young ladies who reigned as "Miss St. Augustine's College" were Glenda Battles, Carolyn Floyd, Karen T. Heard, and Sandra Y. Pope.

"Jamming" seemed to be a big thing for most Augites, and whenever I was asked to go out, I had too much work to do. What a drag! I couldn't even breathe without having five or six term papers eating away at my brain. Nevertheless, I enjoyed that phase of my life at college.

Memories are golden when you remember the people who you talked to, lied to, traveled with, and fought with. Take my friends Vickie Floyd, Ann Brandon, Donna Brown, Jennifer Battles, Debra Middleton, and Rose Green. We jived around, had a lot of fun, but when it came down to really getting serious, we knew "the scoop."

Dr. Thompson and Dr. Robinson — who could forget them! It's not everyday that a student can come from a class and feel exhilarated, but if one should check out "Dr. T" or "Watashi," one would really have a refreshing learning experience.

There are sad and happy memories, and those that I have of Father Clyde Beatty are wonderful and worth remembering. He came and went like the wind, never passing without giving a hello and a smile. I miss him, and I believe that most students who knew him felt a great loss when he died.

A tragic car accident took the life of one of St. Aug's best-loved student leaders, August Toomey. His leadership carried many of us students very far. Not only was he an excellent student, but also a faithful friend.

Who could forget the snowball wars each winter? The baseball players really cheated; after all, aren't they good ball throwers? They really whopped the girls as the girls came and went to classes and to the cafeteria. Don't think that the ladies didn't get them back! They were just a little more strategic in their war "tactics."

Senior year, and all is almost well. I've got to finish this book so that my staff and advisors can take a rest. Before I finish this editorial, I have some acknowledgements to make.

I'd like to thank the yearbook advisors, Miss Joan Taylor and Miss Diane Cherry, for their hard work and for their concern for the yearbook. If it weren't for them, this yearbook would not have been a success.

Special, special gratitude goes to my staff of committed workers and friends — Rosemary Green, Constance Black, Vickie Floyd, Wendy Butler, and Carolyn Brantley — thanks also to Dr. Roundtree for the added push.

Enjoy!!!

Linda D. Mooror
